CASE NO. CIV-16-443-M

COMPLAINT

The Defendants, Brian Ellis, Facilities Management Director; Sue-Anna Miller, Assistant Director; Matthew Ram, Custodial and Housekeeping Manager; Pam Mitchell, Assistant Director; Devin Bartlett, Supervisor of Lloyd Noble Custodians; and Chelle' Guttrey, Disability Resource Center. The aforementioned names are employees and representatives of the University of Oklahoma, 660 Parrington Oval, Evans Hall 102, Norman, OK 73019.

The Plaintiff, Grant Lewis Ashley, began experiencing racially hostile comments and actions from his direct supervisor, Bartlett and intimated several formal complaints to the department's administration branch. Shortly thereafter, negative retaliatory occurrences commenced along with renewed and ongoing racially unfriendly workplace environments and settings. Notwithstanding Plaintiff Ashley's continual complaints the Defendants ignored Plaintiff Ashley's pleas and engaged in a campaign of increased retaliatory actions.

The Defendants actions matured to develop into an unfavorable and harmful atmosphere for Plaintiff Ashley's status as both a full-time University employee as well as a full-time University student by means of but not limited to: exclusion from mandatory over-time hours offered fellow employees; reassignment of normal work station; vandalism of personal property; unannounced work site inspections; the prolonging of time-sensitive documents required by Plaintiff Ashley to received reduced tuition; and abrupt termination.

It is my allegations that the Defendants as representatives of the University of Oklahoma discriminated against Plaintiff Ashley and violated the Plaintiff's civil rights of protected conduct. I further profess that the Defendants created such a conspicuous campaign of negative, hardship-generating, burden-laden attack salvos that fellow employees were deterred from participating as witnesses on my behalf or reporting adverse actions aimed at themselves.

I am seeking judiciary redress for financial loss, mental stress and anguish, and the academic harm and suffering I endured as a result of the University of Oklahoma's design to expose me to undesirable situations and the unfair and unequal treatments affected.
